NEW GOODS

are now arriving daily at

GOODALE'S,

and we are prepared to show the people a finer class of goods than ever.
Past experience has taught us that the people appreciate the kind of goods we handle, and we shall continue to try to please them. We have now a very nice line of

|----------------|----------------|
| Fancy Rockers, | 85c to $5.00 |
| Couches, | $7.50 to $40 |
| Bedroom Suits, | $18 to $85 |
| Parlor Suits, | $40 to $140 |
| Center Tables, | $1.25 to $13 |
| Easels, | $1.00 to $4 |

In fact, anything you want at any price you wish. Call and see if this isn't right, at

E. L. GOODALE'S.

We don't know exactly what's the matter, but all day long up and down our store there's the greatest clatter going on.
We are selling more Stoves right now (not to mention other goods), and we realize that we are not in our dotage, but in a community of bright, progressive,
bargain-hunting
Americans who know a good thing when they see it.

We can come as near helping you solve the problem of making a little money cover a multitude of wants (in our line of goods) as any firm in this Van Buren diocese.
Yours for the Hardware campaign of 1893 with a great big United States
WHOO!

Fred Bilsborrow.

with Mrs. O. A. Goss in Holland.

Mrs. Minnie Allen Moon returned to her home in Chicago last Saturday.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs.
Geo. Hall at 2:30 p. m. on Saturday.

We are indebted to C. A. Wise of Redlands, Cal., for late California papers.

Duane Duncombe is reading law in the office of Osborn & Mills, Kalamazoo.

L. W. Melchor, wife and little boy, of Chicago, were visiting in this place last week.

Mrs. Cora D. Martin is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. S. Williams, in Aberdeen, South Dakota.

The East Arlington Farmers' club will meet at the home of R. G. Hutchins to-morrow.

Frank VanDyke was the first man in this township to secure a receipt for this year's taxes.

Mr. and Mrs. N. B. McKinney of Lawton spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in this place.

Paw Paw's favorite, Frank Tucker, at Longwell's opera house to night with a company of stars.

Mrs. A. Hughes of Janesville, Wis., has been visiting Mrs. Riley Bangs and other friends in this place.

Wood is just as good as cash at this office. We allow the highest market price for either green or dry.

Samuel Walker and his bride have commenced housekeeping in the rooms recently vacated by Charley Cole.

You can pay your taxes by dropping in at Wm. Killefer's office, where Ira Hulbert is busy making out receipts.

The 27th. annual convention of the Michigan State Beekeepers' association will be held in Lansing Dec. 13 and 14.

Mr. Jason Woodman was announced to deliver a lecture yesterday afternoon before the Allegan County Council, P. of H.

President Harrison's annual message to congress was delivered yesterday. It will appear in full in this paper next week.

The Marcellus News says: "The school seat company expect to shut down their factory next week for an indefinite period."

We learn that Fred Koons inherits from an uncle a large body of valuable land in California, and will soon leave to take possession of same.

The Czar-like demeanor assumed by Wint Reynolds the past few days is explained. It's a new baby—just a little speck of a boy, born last Friday.

Broadhead Post G. A. R. will elect officers for the ensuing year next Monday night. It is hoped every member of the Post will be in attendance.

Mrs. Jas. Nelson, supposed to have been at the point of death for several days last week, is improving and hopes are entertained of her ultimate recovery.

All interested in forming a choral union in this place are requested to meet with Mr. A. H. Perry of Detroit at the First Baptist church at 7:30 this evening.

A joint stock company, of which H.
W. Williams is president, has been organized at South Haven for the purpose of building a first-class hotel at that place.

It is said that Frank Tucker never gave a poor show. It is also said that the show he is now giving is the best he ever gave. To-night at Longwell's opera house.

Bert Moon came over from Chicago Saturday to spend Sunday with his wife and baby, but found on arriving here that they had left for Chicago on the morning train.

The annual meeting of the Pine Grove, Bloomington and Waverly Sunday School association will be held in the Covey Hill church on Wednesday of next week.

The proprietors of the several meat markets in this place have entered into an agreement not to open their places of business on Sunday mornings hereafter until further notice.

The union temperance meeting, usually held on the first Sunday of the month, was postponed on account of quarterly meeting at the M. E. church and will be held next Sunday.

By the way, what has become of Sul.
Cook's Peoples' Alliance? The last we heard about it was that Sul. had got seven new subscribers and was contemplating blowing the money in on a new hat.

Remember the lecture on Ireland and Irishmen by Rev. Con. Haney at the Disciple church on Tuesday evening, Dec. 13. Single tickets can be purchased on that evening at the door for 35 cents.

Mr. C. S. Burr, for several years in the employ of the Michigan Central at Lawton, succeeded Mr. L. C. Hurd as freight and passenger agent of the T. & S. H. R.
R. at this place on Dec. 1. He will move his family here in a short time.

David Anderson, jr., a graduate from the law office of Heckert & Chandler of this place, and who was admitted to the bar during the past summer, will open a law office in South Haven, having rented that of the late A. P. Thomas.

Rev. G. P. Linderman has just closed a successful series of meetings at Sparta, Mich., in which the church was greatly revived and a goodly number converted. He began another meeting at Ortonville, Oakland county, Sunday.

The American Express Co.'s office will be removed from the depot to one of the stores in the Manning block.
This will be an improvement over the old regime. Mr. L. C. Hurd will continue to act as agent for the company.

Especially attention is called to the prospects of the New York Press, to be found elsewhere in this paper. We consider The Press one of the ablest Republican papers in the United States, and its price places it within the reach of all.

At a regular meeting of Paw Paw Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., held on Friday evening Nov. 25, the following officers were elected: N. G.—W. H.
Mason; V. G.—Harry McNeil; R. S.— E. M. Snow; P. S.—Jay Rickard; Treas.— J. H. Waters.

Robert Oaks of Decatur, while taking lumber away from a buzz saw at Willison's mill, got his hand too close to the saw and is now minus the middle finger of his right hand. "Bobby" has been frequently warned against "monkeying with a buzz saw."

The Redlands (Cal.) Fact of Nov. 25 says: D. D. Wise and wife, C. A. Wise and wife, John Loveridge and wife, J.
W. Lewis and wife and H. B. Smith and wife (most all of them familiar names to our readers) took Thanksgiving dinner at J. W. Marvin's in Crafton.

Ira Stretch, a dry goods merchant of Dowagiac, has failed, with liabilities at $15,000 to $20,000. He has compromised with some of his creditors at 25 cents on the dollar. Previous to fact of his being insolvent becoming known, he had sold out his business to A. C. Oylor.

M. H. Hognire drew a load of pepper-mint oil to Bangor Wednesday, which brought $1,840.70. Mr. H. had before sold $1,700 worth this season.
The shipment Wednesday was the most valuable single load of farm produce ever brought to the village.—Advance.

Last Thursday Judge Buck pronounced the following sentences: The Covert robbers, Monroe Parker and Robert Buchanan, were sent to Jackson, Parker for one year and Buchanan for three years. Jud Dyer, jr., of Hartford, convicted of larceny, got one year at Ionia.

Mr. S. M. Chaffee of Elk Rapids spent Saturday and Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Chaffee, of this place.
He was called to Grand Rapids in attendance upon the United States court, and found time between cases for this brief visit, the first in nine years.

Mrs. E. Durkee left for Worcester, Mass., last Friday, intending to spend the winter with her mother and other relatives there. She was accompanied by her son Hubert who is engaged to travel this winter for an Eastern firm in the interests of the Chautauqua Combination.

A special train is talked of for those who wish to attend the Scott-Siddons entertainment at Lawton on Dec. 14th.
All desirous of going are requested to leave their names with Mrs. Heckert as early as possible, that arrangements for reserved seats and tickets may be made.
Admission, 50 cents.

We hear it intimated that a new paper of the Democratic persuasion is to be started in South Haven. It would occur to a casual observer that to divide the business of that place into three parts would not leave a very wide margin of profits for any of them.
Nevertheless, success to the enterprise if it "goes."

Last Friday morning the supreme court declared the preliminary proceeding by which local option was adopted in Gratiot county irregular and void, and the county will hereafter be "wet." It was upon an application for a mandamus compelling the county treasurer to receive and approve the saloon bond of one Covert.

We were in error last week in announcing the death at Chicago of Don C. Rogers by saying that deceased was at one time register of deeds of this county. The Don C. Rogers in question was a son of John W. Rogers, formerly postmaster at Decatur, who was a brother of the Don C. Rogers we had in mind when writing the item.

The Kalamazoo Telegraph made its appearance on the 29th ult. printed on a Cox duplex press from a new dress of type. The paper was handsomely printed, a result seldom attained with a new piece of machinery so complicated as a perfecting printing press. We congratulate our neighbor on these substantial evidences of prosperity.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the State Agricultural society, held at Lansing on Thursday last, it was decided, in view of the World's Fair, not to give a state exposition next fall. Thus far but 30 per cent of the premiums earned this year have been paid, but provision for paying the balance will be made at the annual meeting of the society in January.

At the recent annual meeting of Paw Paw Lodge No. 25, F. & A. M., the following officers were elected: W. M., E. A. Palmer; S. W., R. W. Broughton; J. W., J. E. Chandler; treasurer, L. B.
Sheldon; secretary, A. H. Smith; tyler, L. W. Whitbeck; S. D., M. U. Richardson; J. D., Phineas Cole; stewards, J.
E. Kingsnorth, G. S. Briggs; finance committee, E. F. Parks, R. W. Broughton, Ella Curtis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Longwell passed the forty-first milestone of their wedded life on Sunday last, having been married December 4th, 1851. A casual observer would fix that as about the age of the couple.

A farmers' institute will be held in Paw Paw beginning on Monday evening of Jan. 16th and continuing until Thursday evening. Those interested to know more of the particulars are invited to meet at Grange Hall in Paw Paw on Saturday at 2 p. m. when final arrangements will be completed.

Do not fail to hear Rev. Con. Haney at the Disciple church on Tuesday evening, Dec. 13. His well known reputation as an orator always insures crowded houses. On the platform he is dignified, resonant in articulation, impassionate in expression, beaming in oratory and poetical thought.

Richard Edwards, a wealthy farmer of Bangor and C. W. Strong, an old laboring man, were riding on a load of household goods. The team ran away.
Both were thrown to the frozen ground.
Edwards' shoulder, five ribs and hip were broken and he will probably die.
Strong's ankle was broken badly.

Some time before election Harry Showerman offered three prizes for the closest guesses on the plurality in New York for either Harrison or Cleveland.
If the reports as published in the papers of the official canvass are correct, John L. Stanton will get the $10 suit of clothes and R. M. Buck the $3 shoes and $2 hat. "Mort" should divide with some of the poorer guess-ers.

We think few of our patrons can afford to miss hearing Chicago's magnetic orator on next Tuesday night.
Mr. Haney's keen wit and masterly eloquence combined with his fine descriptive power and word conception rank him among the foremost of American orators. In his lecture on Ireland and Irishmen he is eloquent to brilliancy, humorous and witty, with a delivery at times strikingly dramatic.

Paw Paw Chapter No. 34, R. A. M., held its regular annual convocation for the election of officers, and the following were elected: H. P., Wm. Killefer; King, C. S. Adams; scribe, A. H. Smith; C. of H., A. F. Barnes; P. S., R. W.
Broughton; R. A. C., T. R. Smith; secretary, E. F. Parks; treasurer, C. Erken-beck; G. M., third veil, R. M. Buck; G.
M., second veil, E. A. Palmer; G. M., first veil, D. Tillou; sentry, L. W. Whit-beck.

The State Agricultural society, at its recent meeting, discussed in an informal sort of way the practicability of asking the next legislature for state aid.
The proposition to be made is to this effect: The state to appropriate $20,- 000 for the payment of the debts of the society and $30,000 for permanent improvements, and the society to deed to the state its property in Lansing, valued at $75,000. We doubt very much if the legislature will decide to put the state into the show business.

The leading mining journals of the Upper Peninsula are a unit in recommending the appointment by Gov. Richard of Mr. Chas. D. Lawton as commissioner of mineral statistics. Prof. Lawton's administration of that office was characterized by an intelligent conception of its aims and by a fidelity to duty unsurpassed by any officer, elected or appointed, in the state. The Lower Peninsula also enters her recommendation that Prof. Lawton be reinstated to the office from which he was removed by Gov. Winans.

We made brief mention last week of the visit to his home in this place of Clare Allen of Mandan, N. D. Mr. Allen left here twelve years ago, then a mere lad, and went out into the great Northwest determined to see what there was "in it" for him. As soon as he was big enough to shovel coal he went to firing on a railroad, and by close attention to his duties and a fixed determination to win he has worked up to the position of engineer, running between Mandan and Dickinson. He left last Saturday on his return to the west.

The affidavits of campaign expenses have been filed with the county clerk as follows: Republicans to secure a decided victory: J. O. Bevaart, chairman of Republican congressional committee, Fourth district, $660.85; Henry F.
Thomas, congressman elect $1,187.01; A. T. Anderson, chairman Republican county committee, $375; Edwin A.
Wildey, representative elect, $39.85;
B. F. Heckert, judge of probate, $41; T. C.
Tyner, register of deeds, $75; H. K.
Wells, county treasurer, $40; L. H.
Titus, prosecuting attorney, $56.05; H.
E. Squier, county clerk, $50. Defeated Democrats: George L. Yapple, $780.12; T. J. Cavanaugh, chairman Democratic county committee, $451.75; Mr. Killifer, fusion candidate for representative, $87; T. J. Cavanaugh, fusion candidate for prosecuting attorney, $63.30.

Business Brevities.

In addition to her fine stock of ters, he offers the entire stock for 20 per cent discount until Jan. 15th.

Remember that the goods now sold same in quality as those always hand-

An examination will convince you of the fact of this statement.
